

THE CATENIAN ASSOCIATION LIMITED

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR OUR MEMBERS

1. INTRODUCTION

This privacy notice is provided to you as a member of The Catenian Association Limited. We are legally required to provide some of the information in this privacy notice under data protection laws which are in force in the UK and the European Union, however some of the information is provided for information purposes, rather than being a legal requirement. Whilst it is only a requirement for the Catenian Association to provide this privacy notice if you are based in the UK or the European Union, we aim to treat all members equally so we are also providing this privacy notice to all members regardless of their geographic location and we aim to treat all members personal information in the same manner.

You should read this privacy notice, but you do not need to agree or accept its contents or to confirm it has been received by you. It is simply a statement about the processing of your personal information. You should retain it for future reference, but further copies are available at www.thecatenians.com/security/login/gdpr or you can request another copy from the Catenian Association.

This privacy notice is divided up into a series of sections which are:

3. SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may also collect, store and use the following “special categories” of more sensitive personal information regarding you:

- information about your race or ethnicity and religious beliefs; and
- information about your health, including any medical condition, health and sickness updates

We may not collect all of the above types of special category personal information about you. In relation to the special category personal data that we do process we do so on the basis that

- the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on a lawful basis;
- it is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- it is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising our or your rights in the field of employment and social security and social protection law; or
- based on your explicit consent.

In the table below we refer to these as the “special category reasons for processing of your personal data”.

We may also collect criminal records information about you. For criminal records history we process it on the basis of legal obligations or based on your explicit consent.

4. WHERE WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION

We typically collect personal information about our members when you apply to become a member of the Association, when you register an account (Portal access) with us at www.thecatenians.com, when you purchase any services or products we offer, when you make a query and/or complaint or when you correspond with us by phone, e-mail or in some other way.

We also may collect personal information about you from any third party references you provide as part of the application process for membership, or information you have provided directly to your Circle/ Group/ Province/ Area Secretary or other Officers for local events, anniversaries, meetings etc.

If you are providing us with details of referees, next of kin, beneficiaries, family members and emergency contacts they have a right to know and to be aware of how what personal information we hold about them, how we collect it and how we use and may share that information. Please share this privacy notice with those of them whom you feel are sufficiently mature to understand it. They also have the same rights as set out in the “Your rights in relation to personal information” section below.

If you do not provide us with the requested personal information we may not be able to admit you as a member or we may not be able to properly perform our contract with you or comply with legal obligations and we may have to terminate your membership. For other personal information you may not be under an obligation to provide it to us, but if you do not provide it then we may not be able to properly perform our contract with you.

Where you have given us your consent to use your personal information in a particular manner, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time, which you may do by contacting us as described in the "Contacting us" section below.

Please note however that the withdrawal of your consent will not affect any use of the data made before you withdrew your consent and we may still be entitled to hold and process the relevant personal information to the extent that we are entitled to do so on bases other than your consent. Withdrawing consent may also have the same effects as not providing the information in the first place, for example we may no longer be able to provide certain member benefits to you.

6. DIRECT MARKETING

We do not generally carry out any direct marketing, almost all of our contact with you concerns your membership of the Catenian Association and the benefits that are included in or relate to that membership. These are therefore not classed as direct marketing as they are part of being a member of the Catenian Association.

However from time to time, we may contact you by email, post or SMS with information about events, products and services we believe you may be interested in which are not part of your membership of the Catenian Association.

We will only send these marketing messages to you in accordance with the marketing preferences you have given us. This can be at Circle, Province or National level. You can also then let us know at any time that you do not wish to receive marketing messages by emailing us at membership@thecatenians.com and we will also give you the opportunity to opt out of receiving them in any marketing message we send to you.

7. DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We share personal information with the following parties:

- Any party approved by you. This may include for example other members generally (e.g. by inclusion in the Catenian Directory), other members of your Circle;
- To any governing bodies or Circle, Provincial Officers covered by the Catenian Association, or to Catenian Publications Limited, The Catenian Association Bursary Fund Ltd and Catena Trustee Ltd: to allow them to properly administer the events, local Membership, Catena monthly magazine subscription, Donations, Volunteer work on a local, national and international level.

- Other service providers and sub-contractors: for example, email marketing specialists, payment processors, promotional advisors, contractors or suppliers and IT services (including CRM, website, video- and teleconference services);
- The Government or our regulators: where we are required to do so by law or to assist with their investigations or initiatives.
- Police, law enforcement and security services: to assist with the investigation and prevention of crime and the protection of national security.

8. TRANSFERRING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION INTERNATIONALLY

The personal information we collect may be transferred to and stored in countries outside of the UK and the European Union. Some of these jurisdictions require different levels of protection in respect of personal information and, in certain instances, the laws in those countries may be less protective than the jurisdiction you are typically resident in. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information is only used in accordance with this privacy notice and applicable data protection laws and is respected and kept secure and where a third party processes your data on our behalf we will put in place appropriate safeguards as required under data protection laws. For further details please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

Our officers, representatives and other individuals working for us may in limited circumstances access personal information outside of the UK and European Union if they are on holiday abroad outside of the UK or European Union. If they do so they will be using our security measures and will be subject to their arrangements with us which are subject to English Law and/or European Union law and the same legal protections that would apply to accessing personal data within the UK and European Union.

In limited circumstances the people to whom we may disclose personal information as mentioned in the section "Disclosure of your personal information" above may be located outside of the UK and European Union. In these cases we will impose any legally required protections to the personal information as required by law before it is disclosed.

If you require more details on the arrangements for any of the above then please contact us using the details in the "Contacting us" section below.

However, if you are a Member outside of the UK or European Union the personal information we collect will be sent to and stored in countries outside of the UK and the European Union, but within the corresponding National Councils and Provinces within the Catenian Association. Some of these jurisdictions require different levels of protection in respect of personal information and, in certain instances, the laws in those countries may be less protective than the jurisdiction you are typically resident in.

Regardless of the jurisdiction you are based in, and whether or not you are covered by UK or European Union data protection laws, we will aim take all reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information is only used in accordance with this privacy notice and applicable data protection laws and is respected and kept secure and where Councils, Provinces and Circles process your personal information on our behalf we will put in place appropriate safeguards as required under data protection laws. For further details please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

9. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR

The duration for which we retain your personal information will differ depending on the type of information and the reason why we collected it from you. However, in some cases personal information may be retained on a long-term basis: for example, personal information that we need to retain for legal purposes will normally be retained in accordance with usual commercial practice and regulatory requirements. Generally, where there is no legal requirement we retain all physical and electronic records for a period 7 years after your last contact with us or the end of your membership due to legal and financial record keeping requirements. Exceptions to this rule are:

- Details regarding unsuccessful membership applicants where we hold records for a period of not more than 2 years from the date of the decision.
- Where in order to continue and preserve the historic archives of the Catenian Association we retain first name, last name, circle, join date and end date for past members with no limit on time. For further details please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.
- Information that may be relevant to personal injury or discrimination claims may be retained until the limitation period for those types of claims has expired. For personal injury or discrimination claims this can be an extended period as the limitation period might not start to run until a long time after the event.

It is important to ensure that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up-to-date, and you should let us know if anything changes, for example if you change your phone number or email address. You may be able to update some of the personal information we hold about you through your membership portal, or via your Circle Secretary. Alternatively, you can contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

10. YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the following rights in relation to your personal information:

- the right to be informed about how your personal information is being used;
- the right to access the personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the correction of inaccurate personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the erasure of your personal information in certain limited circumstances;
- the right to restrict processing of your personal information where certain requirements are met;
- the right to object to the processing of your personal information;
- the right to request that we transfer elements of your data either to you or another service provider; and
- the right to object to certain automated decision making processes using your personal information.

You should note that some of these rights, for example the right to require us to transfer your data to another service provider or the right to object to automated decision making, may not apply as they have specific requirements and exemptions which apply to them and they may not apply to personal information recorded and stored by us. For example, we do not use automated decision making in relation to your personal data. However, some have no conditions attached, so your right to withdraw consent or object to processing for direct marketing are absolute rights.

Whilst this privacy notice sets out a general summary of your legal rights in respect of personal information, this is a very complex area of law. More information about your legal rights can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/>.

To exercise any of the above rights, or if you have any questions relating to your rights, please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information you can also complain to the UK Information Commissioner's Office or your local data protection regulator. We are here to help and encourage you to contact us to resolve your complaint first.

11. CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we change this notice in a material way, we will update the version date at the bottom of this page. Please refer to the Members Area of our website <https://www.thecatenians.com/Security/login> for the latest version. For significant changes to this notice we will try to give you reasonable notice unless we are prevented from doing so. Where required by law we will seek your consent to changes in the way we use your personal information.

12. CONTACTING US

In the event of any query or complaint in connection with the information we hold about you, please email dataprotection@thecatenians.com or write to us at Data Protection Compliance Manager, The Catenian Association, 2nd Floor 1 Park House, Station Square, Coventry CV1 2FL, United Kingdom.
